

Public Review Draft
6th Cycle Housing Element Update
2023-2031

The City of Del Rey Oaks has prepared a Public Review Draft of the City's 6th Cycle Housing Element Update. The 6th Cycle Housing Element Update is a required element of the City's General Plan and identifies how the City intends to accommodate existing and projected future housing needs. The City is required to plan for their fair share of the regional housing needs. The Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) for the City of Del Rey Oaks is 184 new housing units for the 6th Cycle (2023-2031), in addition to the 86 housing units of the previous housing cycles.

As of May 26, 2023, the Del Rey Oaks Public Review Draft Housing Element is available for a 30-day review and public comment period. The document is available on the City's website:
